Please choose from the list below the workshop that you would like to participate in during the Winter School and write then an academic essay of no more than 500 words answering ONE of the two questions related to the workshop you have chosen:

- A: Education Governance
- B: Participation in Multilanguage Environments
- C: Multilingualism and Legal Language
- D: Migration and Integration

WORKSHOP A: Education Governance

1. Discuss the distribution of competences in the areas of compulsory, higher and vocational education in your country. What kind of competence is exercised at which governmental levels? How and to what extent does the division of educational functions between levels of government – paired with mechanisms of intergovernmental relations – ease or increase tensions in educational governance and in the accommodation of diversity?
2. Discuss organizational issues in educational governance in your country. Which are the most significant institutions in the area of education? To whom are they accountable, how are they financed and what role do they play in intergovernmental relations? To what extent and how do they ease or increase tensions in educational governance, and more broadly in inter-group relations?

WORKSHOP B: Participation in Multilingual Environments

1. How would you define participatory and deliberative democracy based on your knowledge and experience? What do you understand by the term “democratic innovations”? And what role does language (or a multilingual environment) play in deliberative processes? Please, provide examples you are familiar with.
2. To what extent does participatory democracy affect decision-making processes (constitutional, legislative and administrative) in multilevel systems? Please answer this question with reference to on one or more countries of your choice.

WORKSHOP C: Multilingualism and Legal Language

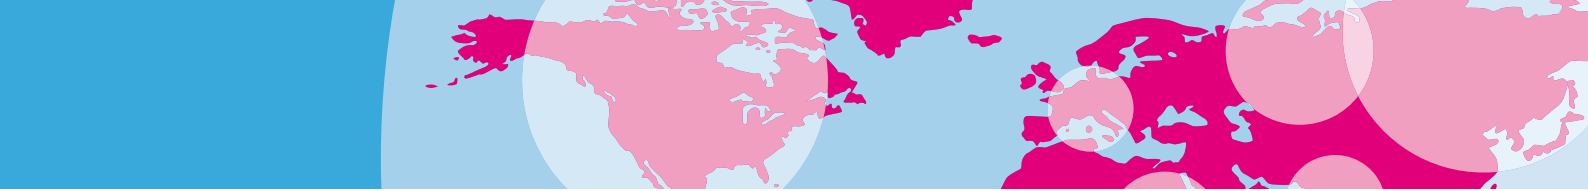

1. How can federal systems or autonomous regions with language minorities manage linguistic diversity? Answer this question by focusing on one or two case studies with which you are familiar.
2. What are the advantages and shortcomings of multilingualism in government, administration, and the judiciary? What are the legal and linguistic prerequisites for using a minority language in public administration? What are the challenges of developing legal terminology in a minority language? Please focus on a case study with which you are familiar and, if possible, provide examples.

WORKSHOP D: Migration and Integration

1. How do the national, regional and local governments in your county or any country of your choice interact with regarding to language policies vis-à-vis migrants, and what is the role, positive and/or negative, that these policies play in relation to social integration?
2. What services are offered to migrants in terms of adult language courses (often compulsory), language learning in schools and, possibly, other measures of linguistic facilitation in the public realm (e.g. public administration, hospitals)? Discuss positive and/or negative practices from different government levels in your county or any country of your choice.

22. Please insert an essay of no more than 500 words (approx. 3.500 characters) answering ONE of the eight questions listed above. Please note that without the essay your application will not be taken into consideration.
